

Explore the Museum galleries to learn more about the U.S. Army and Army history. Return your completed mission to the Experiential Learning Center. You must complete 7 of the 10 points to receive a prize.

- Explore the Soldier Stories Gallery near the Museum lobby. These Soldier stories show a wide variety of people who have served in the Army. Write down the name of one Soldier and why you liked their story.
- Check out the Army and Society Gallery. This gallery examines the relationship between the Army and the American people. In the middle of the gallery is a section where you can write a card about your connection to the Army. Read some of the stories other visitors have left behind and add your own!
- Watch the film "Of Noble Deeds" in the Army Theater and learn about the Army's 7 Core Values. What Values can you remember?
- Find the 3 tanks on display in the Galleries. Write down their names.
 - a. _____ in Nation Overseas
 - b. _____ in Global War
 - c. _____ in Changing World
 - d. How are these tanks the same? How are they different?

The Army has used many different animals throughout Army history.
Find the different animals mentioned in the Museum and why they were used.

Animal	What Gallery is it mentioned? (may be in multiple)	Why was this animal used?
Dog
Horse
Monkey	Army & Society
Mule
Pigeon
Did you find any other animals mentioned in the exhibits?

- Visit the Special Exhibition Gallery on the second floor. “The Art of Soldiering” exhibit is in the back. Some Soldiers use art to remember their time in the service. Is there a specific piece of art on display that you find most interesting? Write down the name of your favorite piece of art.
- Head to the third floor to visit the Medal of Honor Experience and Garden. Take a moment to think about how brave these Soldiers were. What does bravery mean to you?
- Visit the Hands-on History Cart next to the Army Theater. What types of things did a Soldier carry with them? (available 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. and 1 - 3 p.m. every day)
- Visit the Training Center in the Experiential Learning Center and discover some of the different jobs held by Soldiers. What sorts of jobs do Soldiers have?
- Now that you have explored the Museum. What does it mean to you to be an American Soldier?