

FOUNDING THE NATION GALLERY

This gallery covers the colonial period to the War of 1812. Visitors explore the origins of the Continental Army, its role in the Revolutionary War, and more.

NATION OVERSEAS GALLERY

Explore the Army's first venture onto the world stage. This immersive experience takes visitors to the Meuse-Argonne Offensive with film, Soldier figures and special effects.

COLD WAR GALLERY

The United States faced global challenges during the Cold War. While the U.S. Army fought wars in Korea and Vietnam, American Soldiers also manned a defensive line in Europe.

ARMY AND SOCIETY GALLERY

Consisting of five themed areas, The Army and Society Gallery chronicles the relationship between the Army, its civilian government, and the people.

PRESERVING THE NATION GALLERY

The Preserving the Nation Gallery gives visitors an understanding of the Army's part in the defining American event of the 19th century, the Civil War.

GLOBAL WAR GALLERY

The Global War Gallery portrays the Army's role in the Allied victory during World War II. Visitors learn about both the European and Pacific Theaters, technology, the Army's air war, and the development of the atomic bomb.

CHANGING WORLD GALLERY

This gallery chronicles one of the most dynamic and global periods in U.S. Army history, from the fall of the Soviet Union through our nation's current conflicts.

"OF NOBLE DEEDS" ARMY THEATER

The film, "Of Noble Deeds" explores what it means to truly be an American Soldier and includes recreations of some of the Army's most significant battles.

Tell us what you think about the Museum!

THANK YOU FOR VISITING

MAP AND GUIDE

FREE

800.506.2672

1775 Liberty Drive, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060

theNMUSA.org

@USArmyMuseum

OPEN 9:00 A.M. - 5:00 P.M. DAILY
FREE ADMISSION

THE ARMY ACTION CENTER

The Army Action Center, the Museum's Virtual Reality and Motion Theater Experience offers a variety of paid experiences for adventure and futuristic fun. Managed by The Army Historical Foundation, tickets are available for purchase on site or online.

MUSEUM STORE

Shop the store for Army-inspired products to commemorate your visit. You can also visit us online at <https://shop.armyhistory.org>.

THE MUSEUM IS A TOBACCO-FREE CAMPUS

Smoking and tobacco use of any kind—including, but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, e-cigarettes, vaping devices and oral nicotine products—are strictly prohibited within the Museum and on the Museum grounds.

FAMILIES WITH NURSING BABIES

You are welcome to nurse/bottle feed your child anywhere you feel comfortable within the Museum. For privacy and convenience, we also offer a nursing pod adjacent to the Special Exhibition Gallery on the second floor. The pod can accommodate one adult, the nursing child and one additional child. The pod includes seating, a locking door and an electrical outlet. Please note the pod does not have running water; however, there is a public restroom located on the same floor and near the pod. Request the access code for the pod at the Welcome Desk or download the Mamava App for instructions.

STOW BEFORE YOU GO

Visitors will be screened through metal detectors when entering the Museum. Visitors are encouraged to bring only the essentials into the Museum building. For those who must bring in bags, please limit the size to a standard backpack.

WE'RE HERE TO HELP

You'll notice our volunteers throughout the building wearing blue Museum polo shirts and name tags. Please ask them for assistance during your visit.

WELCOME DESK

FIRST AID

For serious injuries or illnesses, please contact the nearest security officer or volunteer for assistance.

ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMMODATIONS

The Museum is committed to providing an inclusive visitor experience and offers a variety of accommodations. Please visit the Welcome Desk if you require assistance during your visit and/or contact Visitor Services to discuss accommodations prior to your visit to the Museum.

SERVICE ANIMALS

Service animals specially trained to assist a person with a disability are welcome in all of the Museum's public spaces.

DOCUMENT YOUR VISIT!

Visitors are encouraged to take (and share!) photos during their visit. Professional-grade photography/videography equipment, such as tripods/stabilizers, flash/lighting etc. are not permitted. Members of the media or professional projects; please contact the Museum's Public Affairs Office prior to your visit.

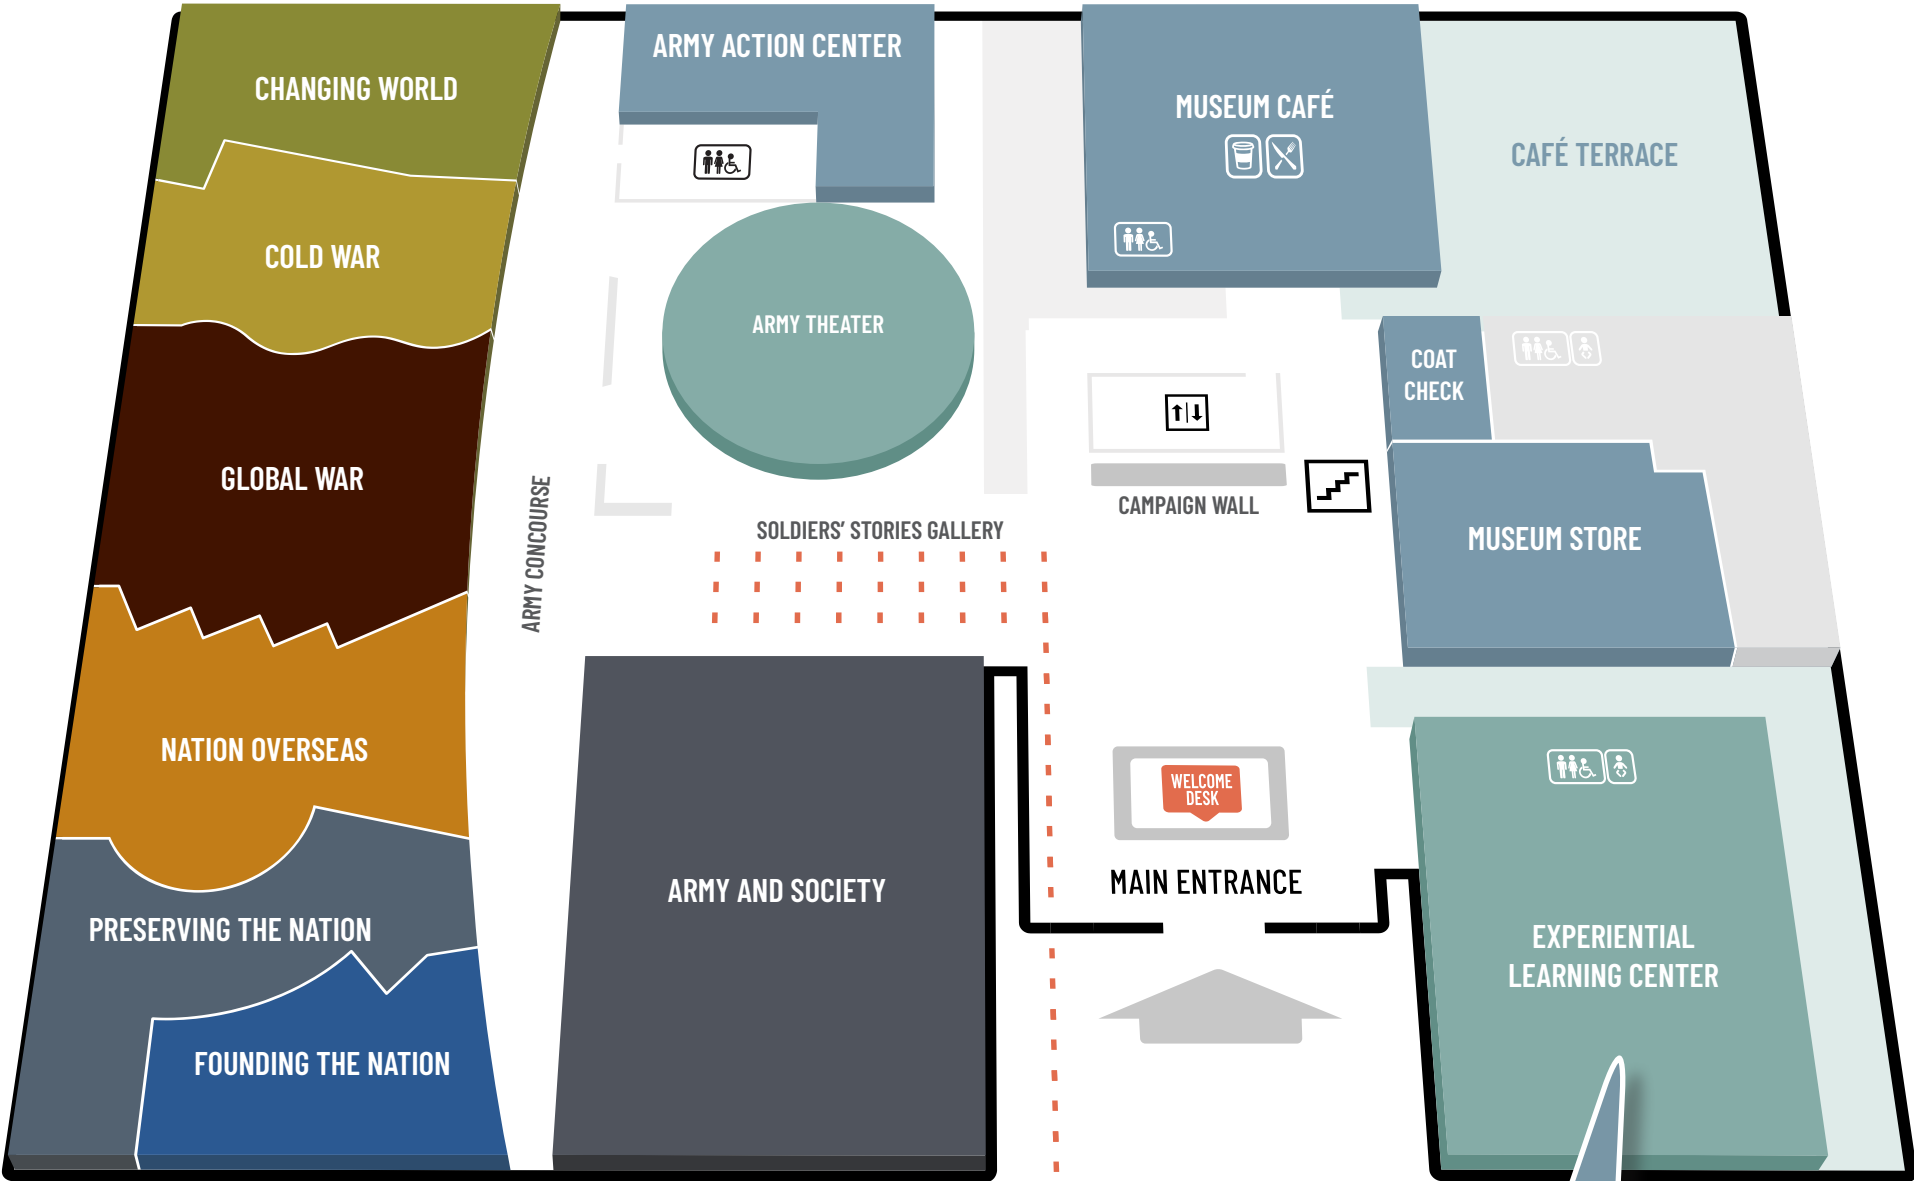

AUDIO TOURS ARE AVAILABLE IN THE FOLLOWING LANGUAGES:

- Arabic (العَرَبِيَّةُ)
- English
- French (Français)
- German (Deutsche)
- Italian (Italiano)
- Japanese (日本語)
- Korean (한국어)
- Mandarin (普通話)
- Portuguese (Português)
- Spanish (Español)

FIRST FLOOR

DID YOU KNOW

the Soldiers' Stories Gallery consists of freestanding pylons—each with an etched image of a Soldier's face and accompanying biographical information—which offer personal accounts of ordinary men and women from all historic periods?

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING CENTER

An engaging learning space for visitors of all ages to have fun developing G-STEM skills - Geography, Science, Technology, Engineering and Math.

SECOND FLOOR

CALL TO Arms

THE SOLDIER AND THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

ARMY 250!

You know how the story ended, now see how it began. Gain a deeper connection to the nation's past and explore the origin stories of America's Army and their fight to win the independence that the founding fathers declared.

THIRD FLOOR

VETERANS' HALL

This multi-functional special event space is available for daytime or evening events and is perfect for your reunion, luncheon, dinner or reception.